

THE BIG BIBLE STORY

Week 6: persistent offenders

Fill in the gaps in the clues about the judges sad cycle, and then see if you can fit them into the grid...

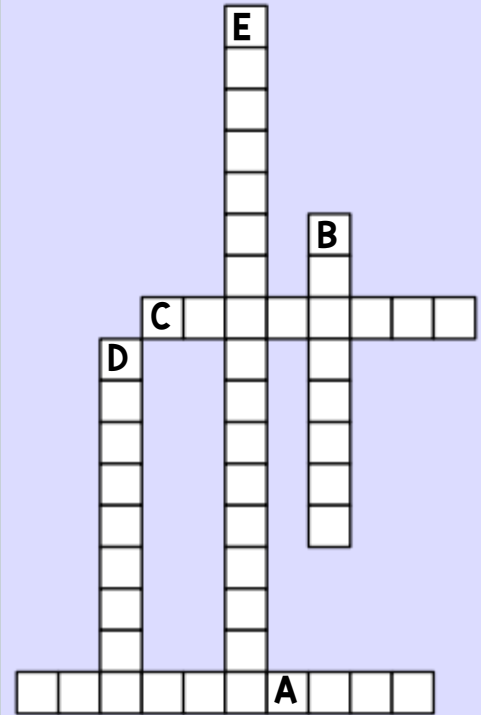

The people
T..... A.... from God

They faced
B.. T.....

They C.....
O.. to God for help

God sent a D....., or a
hero, called a judge,
to rescue them

E..... W..
G... ..for a while...

Remember what we learned in our true Bible story today? God's people were persistent offenders - they just kept on and on sinning, saying no to God and ignoring him. But God is so patient that he still didn't give up on his people...

DID YOU SPOT IT?

What was the problem with the judges God sent to rescue his people?

They were too small

They were too smelly

They didn't live forever

They couldn't beat the enemies

So what did God's people need?

A rescuer who would l..... f.....

Do you think people today are any better than God's people in Judges? Why or why not?

Do you think God's people will stop turning away from him?

Next week, we'll see what the people did next... See you then!
