The Weekend Away 2018

9th–11th November

Gilwell Park,
Chingford,
Essex,
E4 7QW

This year's Twenties & Thirties Weekend Away is taking place on 9 – 11 November. Once again we're off to leafy Gilwell Park which is a great centre, with comfortable accommodation at a fantastic price, lots to do and set amidst a rather nice little slice of countryside.

This weekend away we'll be looking at the book of Jonah and thinking about what it teaches us about Sharing our faith. All God's people are called to the prophetic work of telling others the gospel. But no matter how bad you may be at it, Jonah is probably worse! In 4 unforgettable lessons, he's going to show us how NOT to be a prophet! Come and learn from God how we can do better than him.

We're really pleased that Rob Mullock is coming to speak for us this year. Rob is a minister at Euston Church in central London and is a wonderfully clear, caring and challenging Bible teacher. He's very excited about coming to join us!

There'll be plenty of time to relax, eat (Bumni, our professional caterer friend is back!), drink, play, rest, chat and all the usual trimmings of a weekend away together.

Cost

£65 waged / £40 unwaged

Either payable online or by cheque on the weekend. We'll be in touch once you've booked. Please don't let money prevent you from coming – just speak to Phil Vance and we'll be happy to sort something out.

What to bring

Bedding (a pillow and either a sleeping bag or duvet and sheets), towel, Bible, notebook, suitable kit if you want to play footy or go for a walk etc.), cheque book if required.

Timings

You're welcome to arrive any time from 7.30pm on the Friday. Hot chocolate and snacks will be available on Friday night but please grab your dinner before you come. We will finish after lunch on Sunday.

Transport

By car: the postcode is E4 7QW, and you can get more directions off the website (see below). It takes roughly 45mins to drive from St Albans.

By train (if you're coming from Central London): from Liverpool St to Chingford the journey takes about half an hour and you can use Oyster. There should be taxis outside Chingford station. The journey to the scout centre takes about 5-10 minutes and costs about £6.
