Colossians 1:9-14

The sermon is all about how we can _____ for each other.

It's wonderful that even while we can't go out and see our church family much at the moment, we can still pray for each other, because God is with us, he's listening and he's in charge. And in the Bible, God tells us some great things to pray...

Listen carefully to what Greg says and see if you can fill in the gaps!

1. ...to help us to live w _____
and live in a manner w _____ of Jesus

2. ...to help us to b _____ f _____ g _____ w _____

g _____ w _____

3. ...that we might g _____
in our kn _____ of G _____

4. ...that he may str _____ us so that we may have end _____ and p _____

Can you draw pictures in the spaces to help you remember each point?

Chat with a grown up

1. Show them the front of this sheet!
2. Ask about any words you didn't quite understand...
3. Chat about this question together:

Why would these be good things to pray for each other?

Think a bit deeper...

Who could you pray those things for this week?

Write some names on the lines:

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Why not stop and pray for them together now?

You could even send them a picture of this sheet, so they know you're praying for them!

If you want a bonus song to listen to, why not try...
